CHAINBOW SCORES A HAT TRICK OF INDUSTRY AWARDS WITHIN A WEEK

Within a seven day period, Waterloo-based property management company, Chainbow, collected three property and business awards including Best Managing Agent of an RTM, Best Small Business and a highly commended Best Business for Marketing.

On 12 and 19 May, Chainbow respectively collected the accolades at the Enfranchisement and Right To Manage Awards and South London Business Awards.

The gongs add to the company's growing collection of managing agent and business awards, totalling nine since the business branched into residential block management in late 2006.

Chairman and Chief Executive, Roger Southam, commented, "Chainbow strives to set the standard for residential property management which is an industry riddled with poor customer service, unfair treatment of homeowners and dishonesty.

"Our motto is to do what we say by being transparent, providing open communication and regular reporting and being accountable for our actions. These award wins are an indication that we are on the right path to creating a change in the industry and we are very grateful to the judges of the Enfranchisement and Right to Manage Awards and South London Business Awards."

Chainbow currently manages 95 developments with more than 4,034 leaseholders within the South East, several shopping centres across Eastern Europe and 200 commercial units totalling more than 1,000,000 sq ft (92,903 sq m) throughout the UK.
